

ENJOY THE OUTDOORS!

For our picks for furniture, decor and more, scan here.

Use furniture to break up a large space.

An expansive outdoor area can be challenging to furnish. Make it more manageable—and create a nice flow in the process—by arranging distinct areas in the layout. Having a designated section for activities like lounging and eating can help make the most of your design scheme. Consider introducing rugs for each zone to make even more of a statement.

